

Devotion written by Eli Yeager

“Time with the Lord”

COVID-19 drew me closer to God because I had much more time to read my devotion and talk to God. Usually I would've had to rush through my devotion in the morning because I had to get ready for school, but now I have all the time in the world pretty much. I am one of those kinds of people that can't really focus when I'm rushed, which made it extremely hard to focus and meditate on my devotion in the mornings. Psalm 104:34 says, “My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the Lord.” This verse talks about meditation being sweet, and since my meditation time in the morning was always rushed and not as sincere as it should have been, I was going to try and fix it by making more time for the devotion by waking up earlier or trying to do it in the evening. Then COVID-19 came along and then schools closed because of it. Now I have more than enough time to read my devotion pretty much whenever I want to. I hope all of us will continue to meditate in God's word after COVID-19 is over.
